

NERAP Online Event Privacy Notice

Who are we?

The North East Raising Aspiration Partnership (NERAP) is a group of all of the universities¹ in the North East of England working together to widen participation to higher education in the region. Newcastle University is the lead university for NERAP and act as the lead data controller. This means that they are responsible for all of the information we collect.

Why are we collecting your information?

Newcastle University is collecting your personal data in order to administer your registration for the event. Our lawful basis for this processing is our legitimate interests in providing information about the event that you have registered for. If you do not provide us with a means of contacting you we will be unable give you the correct information for the event, and so the processing is necessary for us to meet that interest.

We further process data for the purpose of:

- Tracking participation and monitoring the effectiveness of our events.
- Providing statistics for management reports.

We would also like to use your name and email address to contact you in the future about events, activities and other general information. If you no longer wish us to contact you, please email info@nerap.ac.uk.

Your Data

All personal data is processed by Newcastle University staff based in the UK, however for the purposes of IT hosting and maintenance, this information is located on servers within the EEA.

We will share your data with a third party organisation, Higher Education Access Tracker (HEAT), in order to check if you go on to higher education so that we can track how useful our programme has been.

There will be no impact on you individually or any decisions you make about your future. You will never be individually identified in any reports we write.

We will retain your personal data for 5 years and if you do not update it within this time-frame, it will be deleted. To withdraw or amend your contact methods at any time either click the link at the bottom of an email received from us or contact us on email info@nerap.ac.uk and we will endeavour to action this within 2 working days.

Further information

If you would like to discuss this further, please email us on info@nerap.ac.uk.

If you would like more information about how we manage personal data more generally, including your rights under law, and the contact details of the University's Data Protection Officer, visit our Data Protection website.
